CORD CUTTER

Weapon (dagger), rare (requires attunement)

A bloody and tarnished razor, now a twisted shadow of its former self. This weapon deals slashing damage instead of its normal piercing damage.

Bloody Barber. The number needed to score a critical hit against a grappled, restrained, or incapacitated creature with this weapon is reduced by 1.

Larynx Laceration. When you kill a creature with this weapon, you absorb knowledge of your quarry. For the next 24 hours, you gain the following benefits:

You can speak and understand any languages the creature knew in life.

You can mimic the voice of the creature. A creature that hears the sounds can tell it is an imitation with a successful DC 14 Wisdom (Insight) check.

You cannot benefit from this property multiple times. If you kill another creature while this property is active, the duration is reset and the benefits of this property are updated to the new creature.
