“Hahahaaha. that’s cute, climb up on the nipple. Sylvie, push them together more.”

Sylvie obliged, her hands gently squeezing her tits and bringing the mountains closer together. Mountains for these tiny passengers anyway. Her nipples were so hard and getting harder. She’d never had this much attention on them ever before.

“You look like you’re enjoying yourself Sylvie.” Clara grinned as she took another photo on her phone. The little girls were trying to climb her nipple on the left breast, and on the right one a couple used it as a mattress.

“You know how sensitive they are, I feel like they’re going to pop right off my body!” They grew another foot to the tinies. She was glad that these were willing participants. Stealing height was often frowned upon and getting playmates to play along not always easy. “Ooooooh I’m feeling the backwash now!” Sylvie groaned as she could feel the return of some of that size, stolen from the tinies, leech into her. This happened slowly and on a delay, but it was there... Her body stretched under her, and Clara whooped.

“Its like they’re shrinking on your body! It’s like I’m shrinking on your body! Sylvie it’s a good one!” Sylvie could see them all shrinking slowly away from her, it was intoxicating. The tinies of course, but her girlfriend too, now she’s barely be able to get both of her hands around a tit. Sylvie grinned and lifted Clara up onto her body.

“Ok, I think it’s time for us to move this all onto the next level.”
