

Special Package by Pandoza

The last rays of the autumn sun lit up the bedroom wall with a gentle glow as Krystal snuck over to her chest of drawers, pulling out a small box from from among a pile of panties and bras. Opening it she cooed softly and whispered down before reaching inside and lifting something out. Her hands were cupped in front of her as she turned towards the bed and carried her fragile cargo towards her slumbering boyfriend.

Laughing to herself she moved as silently as possible and as swiftly as she dared, whilst making a pantomime of her efforts at stealth. Shimming onto the bed she reached with one hand and opened the flaps of his jeans to reveal his impressive cock. Once again she cooed as she softly ran her fingers up and down the length of his shaft. He began to stir but did not wake. Glancing between his face and her prize she stroked his dick until it began to pump up, firming under her fingers. As the cock began to thicken and grow, she brought her other, still cupped hand up to it and gently tipped out the contents. A tiny man and a tiny woman tumbled and fell unceremoniously onto the giant shaft, now hard and throbbing. It absolutely dwarfed the miniature people. The man rolled off and fell onto the larger man's firm stomach in shock. He could do little but stare in awe as a dick the size of a fallen redwood rose above him. The woman leapt up smartly and ran up the length of the shaft towards Krystal's face confront the giantess sneering down at her.

"Release us at once! You have no right to keep us prisoner!"

"Oooo you are a feisty one. But you must calm down and be compliant, don't you see where you are? We are not so bad. Maybe you will have some fun and want to stay."

The giant began to stir again.

"Now you will follow my lead. I am going to make you all happy. But first, what I kiss, you kiss, and when I am ready, you play on me. Understand?"

Without waiting for an answer Krystal extended her tongue and licked the length of the giant's immense cock, knocking the tiny woman down from her perch with her nose. The tiny people stared in awe as the giantess kissed the swollen head and then suddenly enveloped the colossal head in her mouth and looked down at them with laughing eyes. The giant had begun to moan, this was going to be a long afternoon.
